

Nethken Corporation

Supplemental Document

1. Who is the employee (the insider) exfiltrating our intellectual property?
 - a. His/her name
 - b. His/her IP address (computers internet address)
 - c. His/her building name
 - d. His/her room number
2. How did s/he exfiltrate our intellectual property?
 - a. Means and methods for the potential exfiltration of information
3. Who was the target/outside (the receiver of the intellectual property), and who does s/he work for?
 - a. His/her name
 - b. His/her IP address (computers internet address)
 - c. His/her company name
4. What intellectual property did the insider exfiltrate?
5. How should we (Nethken Corporation) respond as a company?

Any additional information relevant to this matter that you uncover during your investigation should be sent to me as well.

No piece of information is too small to report

Relevant items could be passwords, messages or anything that would strengthen our case against a potential insider.

NOTE: Since Nethken is a 9-to-5 operation any access after hours requires approval from the CSO. Requests must be made in writing and sent to the CSO through email (nethken.cso@gmail.com) channels for approval.