

Dear Mr. Dwayne Johnson,

I've sent you this momento to request aid from you. I know that you are a man of many talents, and you are more than the perfect candidate to aid me in my personal time of need. I am currently stuck in a predicament that involves my family heavily. I know that you are not only a husband to your wife, but a father to your daughter, and I hope that your knowledge as a parent can help you to better understand why I'm requesting your aid.

I am currently a business owner based in downtown Beijing, China. As of this quarter my business hasn't been doing as well as expected, and times have already been hard as is. My wife decided that she and I needed an escape from the office to take a family vacation to the Bahamas. Me being me I decided that it would be a good idea, mostly because I love taking vacations for any reason whatsoever.

While on the one-week cruise through the Bahamas, the night of my daughter's fifteenth birthday, a rivaling business that was already destined to send us into bankruptcy decided to assault and kidnap my daughter. The only message that they left to us was to "Meet us at the bottom of the cat's overturned axe, on the Eagle's nest with one million dollars USD." We believe the "cat's axe" refers to Cat Island just east of us.

Because of the condition of my business, I cannot afford to drop one million USD on a ransom setup by some thugs that my business rival hired. I am asking you to forward me the ransom money, and when my company begins to restabilize, I will pay you back double the ransom money, and give you a 30% share in my company.

If you do decide to do so, please met my wife and I at the airport on Car Island with CASH MONEY. They will only accept cash, and no other form of trade. If my business ends up falling through, I will personally find another way of repaying you at any cost.

As I write this to you, I can only imagine the horrible things that they are doing to my daughter right now, and as the parent of a young girl, I hope that you can understand how I'm feeling so that we may be on the same page with this situation, and can come to an agreement on the ransom money, and my repayment to you. I only hope that it is not as bad as what I think it may be, and that she can still live a normal life as a teenage girl, and an adult.

With well intentions I hope that you understand and believe me, and wish to take action against the group of mercenaries that kidnapped my daughter and aid my cause. The sooner it gets done, the more payment I will give to you.

With hope,

Swiss Swahili
